SCRIPTURE READING Nehemiah 2:1-8, 17-20, 6:15-16

SCRIPTURE READING from Nehemiah 8

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to read from the book of the law of Moses.

Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, and when he opened it all the people stood up.

Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen. Amen." lifting up their hands.

Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites, said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep". For the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord.

And do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, "Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved."

And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing. Because they understood the words that were declared to them.
