SCRIPTURE LITANY (responsively) --from Psalm 73 NLT

One: Truly God is good to Israel, to those whose hearts are pure.

All: But as for me, I almost lost my footing. My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone.

One: For I envied the proud when I saw them prosper despite their wickedness.

All: They seemed to live such painless lives; their bodies are so healthy and strong.

One: They don't have troubles like other people; they're not plagued with problems like everyone else.

All: Look at these wicked people—enjoying a life of ease while their riches multiply.

One: Did I keep my heart pure for nothing? Did I keep myself innocent for no reason?

All: So I tried to understand why the wicked prosper. But what a difficult task it is!

One: Then I went into your sanctuary, O God, and I finally understood the destiny of the wicked.

All: Truly, you put them on a slippery path and send them sliding over the cliff of destruction.

One: Then I realized that my heart was bitter, and I was all torn up inside.

All: I was foolish and ignorant—I must have seemed like a senseless animal to you.

One: Yet I still belong to you; you hold my right hand.

All: You guide me with your counsel, leading me to a glorious destiny. I desire you more than anything on earth.

One: My health may fail, my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart; he is mine forever.

All: As for me, how good it is to be near God! I have made the Sovereign Lord my shelter.
