SCRIPTURE LITANY Ephesians 2:10-18 The Message

One: God creates each of us by Christ Jesus to join him in the work he does, the good work he has gotten ready for us to do, work we had better be doing.

All: But don't take any of this for granted. It was only yesterday that you outsiders to God's ways had no idea of any of this and hadn't the faintest idea of Christ.

One: You knew nothing of that rich history of God's covenants and promises in Israel, hadn't a clue about what God was doing in the world at large.

All: Now because of Christ—dying that death, shedding that blood—you who were once out of it altogether are in on everything.

One: The Messiah has made things up between us so that we're now together on this, both non-Jewish outsiders and Jewish insiders.

All: He tore down the wall we used to keep each other at a distance. He repealed the law code that had become so clogged with fine print and footnotes that it hindered more than it helped.

One: Then he started over. Instead of continuing with two groups of people separated by centuries of animosity and suspicion, he created a new kind of human being, a fresh start for everybody.

All: Christ brought us together through his death on the cross. The cross got us to embrace, and that was the end of the hostility.
