SCRIPTURE READINGS from Exodus 6, Matthew 7 and 22

Moses said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might.

Keep these words that I am commanding you in your heart.

Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise."

One of the Pharisees asked Jesus a question to test him: "Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?"

Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.

This is the first and greatest commandment.

And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

On these two commandments hang all the law and prophets."

The crowds were amazed at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority.
